

Consultant Document of Understanding

Date:

Consultant:

Crimson Consulting Group, Inc. may obtain your services as an independent contractor or company and will be introducing you to prospective Clients. To this end, we ask that you agree to the following basic principles:

- Client Relationship. By signing this letter, you agree that any and all consulting work done by you or your company for customers introduced by Crimson will be done exclusively through Crimson during the one-year period starting the date this letter is signed. For the purpose of this clause, "customers" is defined as the individuals at a Client company that the Consultant meets as a result of Crimson's efforts to present an opportunity to the consultant.

- Confidentiality. You (the Consultant) acknowledge that, as a result of Crimson introducing you to a Client, you may receive information that could be used to benefit yourself. Crimson relies on the integrity of its consultants in matters of proprietary Client company information. By approving this Document of Understanding, you agree to keep such information confidential. This obligation applies to all information regardless of the form in which it is received.

- Fees. You (the Consultant) agree not to disclose any rate or fee information discussed between you and Crimson with the Client at any time.

By signing this document, you acknowledge and agree to work by the above principles.
